"You don't need him," you tell yourself,
But you don't want anybody else
Stuck in a rewind, as colors fly by,
They leave you paralyzed
You lie awake at night
And cry,

Ooh, ooh,
I don't wanna be alone
Ooh, ooh,
I need to let you know
From the day I first met you,
I can't let you go.

The radio turns on and it's playing his song
You have to cut it off
You stare at the ceiling, and fight all the feelings
You've kept for so long
And as you close your eyes
You cry,

Ooh, ooh,
I don't wanna be alone
Ooh, ooh,
I need to let you know
From the day I first met you,
I can't let you go.
