Been trying to get your attention for a while now Been hoping you'd wake up and love me like you know how
But it's been so long that I don't believe You'll care if I leave
You put anything and anyone before me
I've tried everything but you just ignore me
How much more do you think I can take?
Before I walk away
Why are you so quiet, what's on your mind?
You can be completely honest, I will be just fine
I won't be dramatic, I don't wanna fight
I just wanna know so I can move on with my life

Let's get down to the truth, say you love me, if you really do
I don't know how we got here, but what I do know is I won't stay out of fear

I don't wanna be alone, but this is worse
So tired of all this crying, and silently hurting I've acted like nothing's wrong for as long as I could
The time has finally come for me to do what's good You should already know that I love you so but at a certain point
The ball is in your court,
It pains me to say this
But I would be remiss if I didn't let you know, let you know

This ain't a threat, I'd never wanna force you To do or say something you don't want to I've come to you straight and everything's laid out, on the line.
You can do with this information what you want to
We can start right now hashing out our issues
Or we can say that it's too late
And walk away.
