I remember the time when I was a kid eating trixs for breakfast, I just wanted to live in an hour back then
I remember my friends
living on the bike
living over the fence and now it's a different time same place all through school looking at the same faces and the same friends with a couple of changes staying strong through the many different phases and races
on the weekends
working the week, ice cream shop non-stop something to eat
The home-made box kickers under the seat bass up loud just to feel the beat and with the youth came love the love became skill do it right, lovin life living on two wheels and I do what you do and do what you feel now to me that's just keeping it real, for real

[Chorus]

remember the times when we were just children riding dirt bikes beyond the old building remember the times when we just had fun and never really cared about the outcome

living our lives inside the old building
and never really cared about our income

remember the time (x8)

I was 8 years old waiting out front for my dad pick us up on the weekends we leaving the pad that we know and love all our friends are bummed out cause were going to a spot across town with new kids, same day, all good, all play cause we had good times no matter what'd we say can you take us to the park can we go have some fun can we stay until dark until we run out of sun so it's me and my sister roller rink in night

cause we all know what we got now so we gotta stick together just keep it on the level going doing whatever

rich kid has it all
always following trends but I'm short on ends so what do I do?
I think about the future stop following through with the plan
become a bigger man
stay away from liquor and keep focused on the prize pull the trigger and swirl that ice cream good cause in an hour i'll be busting big just in time to take a shower cause when my mom's gets off i'd better be home i can't afford to be grounded got a city to roam

An itty-bitty come home so insecure and alone
don't need a girlfriend i ain't got time for the phone so when i'm at school
not so cool anyways
no activities like dances, dramas, and plays no cigarettes and drugs kindof scared to blaze

bmx bikes
I kindof stuck in that phase

[Chorus] (x2)
