There's a dirty piece of cardboard
That reads Montgomery Ward
Taped across the window
Of my old Ford
A six pack on the front seat
And a box of chicken wings
I'm dialing 'cross the radio
For a song that I can sing

(chorus)

I'd better change my wandering ways
I know I've seen my better days
Always getting high when I get low
Well I left my soul out in the rain
Lord, what a price I've had to pay
Storms of life are washing me away

An old mail pouch, tobacco sign
Fading on the barn
Bringing back sweet memories of Mama's farm
When love was just a country girl
That lived on down the road
You know, she almost had me turned around
But that was years ago

(repeat chorus)

Yeah, the storms of life are washing me away
