I let the little things bring me down
I'm not always fun to be around
And I'm sure sometimes
You think I take it all out on you

Well, I'm busy doing all I can
Tryin' to earn the right to be your man
When to show a little tenderness
Is all I really need to do

Well, I can't see I'll ever change me
But while I'm tryin' remember baby

The way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could have missed
Like all the times we've laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die

So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the good outweigh the bad?

You've got a million things goin' on
You may feel you face it all alone
'Cause I'm lost in my own circle
When I should be holdin' out my hand, oh yeah baby

It would be easy just to walk away
Somehow you find it in your heart to stay
And you made me realize
I truly am a lucky man

Well, girl I know I drive you crazy
Don't give up, remember baby?

The way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could have missed
Like all the times we've laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die

So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the good outweigh the bad?

As you and I go walkin' down this road
We're bound to stumble and fall
And any journey that's perfectly smooth
Ain't worth takin' at all, remember baby

The way we feel each time we kiss
The sweetest moments we could have missed
Like all the times we've laughed and cried
We can't let that passion ever die

So after all the years we've had
Doesn't the good outweigh the bad?
Yeah baby, after all the years we've had
Doesn't the good outweigh the bad?
