Wanna stand upon a mountain
Wanna run naked in the rain, feel it soak my skin
Take a trip without even thinking 'bout the destination

Wanna jump into an ocean
I wanna dive into an open endless sky
Go too far, go a little crazy and go little over the line

I wanna drink in every moment
And I wanna take in everything

I wanna feel too much
I wanna live too much
I wanna love too much
So much that it hurts

Wanna feel everything
Wanna taste everything in this life
I wanna feel too much

I wanna recklessly love someone
Throw down my heart and throw a caution to the wind
Even if there's a chance that my heart could get open

I wanna drink in every feeling
I wanna love with everything

I wanna feel too much
I wanna live too much
I wanna love too much
So much that it hurts

Wanna feel everything
Wanna taste everything in this life

I wanna feel too much
Really, really feel this
Take every chance I can take

Stand down on anew
And not care if I fall
I wanna feel it all

I wanna feel too much
I wanna live too much
I wanna love too much
So much that it hurts

Wanna feel everything
Wanna taste everything in this life

I wanna feel too much
I wanna live too much
I wanna love too much
So much that it hurts

Wanna feel everything
Wanna taste everything in this life

I wanna feel too much
I wanna feel too much
(Live too much, love too much)
So much that it hurts

Wanna feel everything
