When I woke up this morning
Wiped the sleep from my eyes
I found a new day dawning
And suddenly I realize
Your gone

Tell me I was dreaming
That you didn't leave me here to cry
You didn't say you don't love me anymore
It was just my imagination telling lies
Tell me that you didn't say goodbye

I'm in a state confusion
I hope things aren't what they seem
If this is really happening
Just let go dreamin'
You're home

Tell me I was dreaming

That you didn't leave me here to cry
You didn't say you don't love me anymore
It was just my imagination telling lies
Tell me that you didn't say goodbye

Ohhh yeah

Tell me I was dreaming
Tell me I was dreaming
That you didn't leave me here to cry
You didn't say you don't love me anymore
That was just my imagination telling lies
Tell me that you didn't say goodbye

Don't tell you didn't say goodbye
oooooh ohhhhh
