I've never played with fire
All the chains around me forced me to stay
I've never played with fire
All the mates around me wanted me as the same

Fuck all the rules and fuck who keeps laughing at me
My eyes were shadowed by my lies
They said nothing's a game and I forgot how to play
I never knew what is wrong or right

I've never played with fire
All the dreams around me were about to fade
I've never played with fire
Every kiss I kissed felt so cold and grey

I lived my life by a screenplay,
You opened my eyes with your truest words,

I'll break my silence,
Stop fuckin' with me,
