I always wanted more
You laughed me - I can't make it
Mommy said: "Be a good boy,"
The grey one who quits dreaming

I can't be sitting here, tell me, don't u see?
The heart of rock 'n roll beats inside of me

I always wanted more
You laughed me - I can't make it
I'm here to offer my soul
To drag you into the deepest ecstasy

I can't be sitting here, tell me, don't u see?
The heart of rock 'n roll beats inside of me
I want you to carve my name into your arms
Sing my songs with your soul and with your heart

Scream my name again, feed my dreams again
I'm here for you to make you put your hands in the air
Scream my name again, feed my dreams again
With all my songs I'm here to serve the Freak

I fell in love with the fame and the flashing lights
This freaky business is all what I always desired
Scream my name again, feed my dreams again
With all my songs I'm here to serve the Freak
