Won't you Baby come back to me
I'm lost without you here, down there
This foolish game against the time made me
Forget the words I wanted to tell you

You burn in my mind
Just by your side
I feel alive

Believe in me I always tried
To get rid of my chaos
Now I need you to give me directions
To fight those heartless miles

Won't you Baby lie down with me
We could leave the rainy clouds out there
Forget the world all around us
And embrace the night till our last breath

I'll be the pill that makes you smile
You'll be the secret that I can't hide
I'll be the song that makes you cry
You'll be the soul that makes me,

Be the pill,
Be the secret,
Be the song,
Be the soul,
