"Overflow"

Everything you know is swimming in the sun
Floating through the space that you surround
Everything you know begins to come undone
Don't you think it's time you turned around?

Overflow, overflow
Embrace the glow, overflow

All the things you dream of when you're wide awake
And all those secret lights you haven't found
Sea and sand and sky, what will you choose to make?
Leave the floating up to those who've drowned

Overflowâ€¦

(Matthew 12:34)
