I yearn to be free
I long to escape gravity
Under the light of the stars
I speak Your name
And I wait for an answer

There must be more
I've heard You calling

I believe You'll rescue me
Lift me out of this twilight
Your paradise is in my sight
Lift me into the morning light

I stare into space
Somewhere beyond, there's a place
A Kingdom I see in my dreams
Where I can run for as far as my eyes can see
I'm making for a distant shore
Have mercy on me, set me free

I believe You'll rescue me
Lift me out of this twilight
Your paradise is in my sight
Lift me into the morning light
