"This Is Not How It Was Meant to Be"

Crying "save me", you are saved
A million times a day
Dry your tears and make your stand
Or it won't go away

You were made to shine so bright - brighter than the sun
Shine on in the darkest night, the battle has been won

You believe your doubts, doubting all that you believe
You know this is not how it was ever meant to be

Looking for this autograph
You stumble and you fall
From the bottom of the sea
He will hear you call

You can change if you want to - recognise the voice
Swim or sink into the blue - you always have a choice

You believe your doubts, doubting all that you believe
You know this is not how it was ever meant to be
