You say your name is Sandy but I know your name is mud
All day long you bite my neck but you won't drink my blood
Who do you think you're fooling?
I know you've been drooling

Talking to the moon again, you know it's not that far Last time it was full you banged your head into a star Lose the space suit, baby
Leave the universe & save me

Weirdo - come on out
Weirdo - come on out

Floating through the kitchen, voices spilling from your mouth
Hopelessly in love with all those things that freak you out
Trip in my direction, baby
The moon has been infected lately

Weirdo - come on out;
Weirdo - come on out
Weirdo - don't you know, you shouldn't have to scoop that low
Weirdo - let it go, it's a lie now, don't you know
