Lost my baby in a cemetery
Lost my baby in a cemetery

Driving around with no place to go
How many times has this happened before
Feelings of madness, feelings of pain
Don't think I'll ever be the same

Lost my baby in a cemetery
Lost my baby in a cemetery

In the graveyard I can't find her grave
Her name got wiped away
Polluted by progress stealing my dreams
Wiping clean my memories

Her epitaph got erased
Can't find her resting place
Her name got wiped away
Now I have no place to pray

Lost my baby in a cemetery
Lost my baby in a cemetery

Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves

Respect for the living, respect for the dead
Respect for the living, respect for the dead
Respect for the living, respect for the dead
No respect for the living, no respect for the dead

Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves
Acid rain wipes the names right off the graves

Lost my baby in a cemetery
Lost my baby in a cemetery

Her epitaph got erased
Can't find her resting place
Her name got wiped away
Now I have no place to pray

Lost my baby in a cemetery, got no place to pray
Lost my baby in a cemetery, her name got wiped away
Lost my baby in a cemetery
Lost my baby in a cemetery, yeah
