"Cold and Alone"

Visit "Cold and Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

When I drink I think of her, she's so far away but gets closer

A hopeless dream, yeah I know but she had to let me go

When I'm asleep she comes to me, dancing her way through waves of guillotines

A hopeless dream, yeah I know but she had to let me go

COLD AND ALONE COLD AND ALONE COLD AND ALONE AGAIN

In memories she kisses me so tenderly I gotta save myself and set my soul free

COLD AND ALONE AGAIN

So I lie to myself say I'll find somebody else

But there's no girl in this world that could replace you
