I have to come to terms with the true definition of I I have to re-evaluate myself with myself
my own proof of worth for nobody else
If the Truth be known I'll always be alone
to think I thought I knew myself
Truth-let the truth be know
The pain of being my worst enemy can no longer be endured the pollution must end
Time to be my best friend
Time to be reborn in a value of my own
If the Truth be known
I'll always be alone
Truth-let the truth be known Truth
