Well, I woke up in the morning to the sound of a buzzing curtain. Said I don't wanna hurt you and I hope you don't want to hurt me, but now you're lying in a box with some paper cups and I hope you'll forgive me, but I woke up in the morning to the sound of a buzzing curtain. You said I am just too tired to get along. I'm lost and I'm tired, I'm hungry and I'm dieing. I'm far too far away from every comfortable face and I think I'm ready to die. Perspective day to perspective night. Well, I want you to know that I opened up that doorway so you could spread your wings and pack your things. Go on, get out and fly away. But as circumstances have it, it was not to be that way. But I want you to know that I opened up that doorway.
