Will you find me again at the bottom of the world with a snail on my head looking over the worms? And you know I won't take good care of them. Should I start it with a fact? I don't have any feelings. Should I start off with a question? So tell me, how are you feeling? I don't know what day of the week it is. Everyone in the doorway, getting in through the back door, go and pick up the sticks for the fireplace. Everyone I don't know, you are only people I don't do not know, so I ask you to marry me.
