Uuuuh
Oh, yeah yeah
Oh, you're the kind of girl
Wear your heart on your sleeve
And you're the kind of girl
That sets my mind at ease
And you're the kind of girl
Makes a man believe
That true love's not as hard as they say

Oh oh, true love is just a stone throw away
Oh oh, true love is just a stone throw away

I never met a girl
So cool, so fine and in control
Looking like a centerfold
And when I have thoughts
That makes my heart want to stray
I just think of you
And all those thoughts are chased away
Cause you're the kind of girl
Makes a man believe

Oh oh, true love is just a stone throw away
Oh oh, true love is just a stone throw away

My heart beats just for you
My heart beats just for you
Can you feel it now?
Can you feel it now?
Oh, yeah yeah

Cause I believe that true love is a just a stone throw away
I believe that true love is a just a stone throw away

Oh, yeah, true love,
I think I love you
