sleepwalker by Leech
too much tension
filthy cigarettes
a fifth of vodka
to add the finish with everything you didn't face
keeps resurfacing
she won't let it rest
let you sleep it off
there's no benefit
underneath the doubt
everything you didn't face
keeps resurfacing
what does she think you're like
half asleep half the time
a stranger inside
no sleep tonight
no words to say
could cut the air
could give it sway
let you sleep it off
underneath the doubt
keeps resurfacing
a stranger inside
no sleep tonight
could cut the air
save your reply
you've already lost
make up your mind
give in or give up
