Shadows breaking over my head
Shadows breaking over my head

I wanted to see her
I walked alone, I tell you
I wanted to see her
Though I knew she had left me
Now through trees
I can see

Shadows breaking over my head
Shadows breaking over my head

How well did she know me
How well did I see her
It's something I told her
Please wait to really see me
Please don't leave me
Thoughts that would be dancing through my time
Would help me find a way to
Seek her out in my mind, no no, not this time
It's through for her and me

Shadows breaking over my head
Shadows breaking over my head
