Here you are
Taking your life for granted while
Dreaming of your enchanted isle
Sit back and dream awhile, ohhhh

Hey hey hey, there's gonna be a storm
And if the time will come I will follow you
I'll speak the same words then as you like me to
I'm telling you
A storm is due

Here you are
Ask me why I could only learn
Here I am
And there's one thing I can't deny
Just look up in the sky awhile

Hey hey hey, there's gonna be a storm
And when the waves of love rise up all around
Don't look for shelter 'cause it just wont be found
It's all around
Oh, hear the sound.
