its not a fad, its a lie so open your eyes to the sensational being that youve become under mascara, your screen is the unseen person that you really are it seems we're all actors in our art but this time youve gone too far too much for me too much for him it seems this time ive got the win

c'mon, c'mon tear it apart dismantle me from the inside out

and these decisions i make an obvious mistake
the moments fleeting i know what ive become a boy obsessed w/ your kiss hip, lips and fingertips you keep me close on this reel
