Jet another fight, another lousy day, long night
Got to get some fresh air and go back out
The sky looks clear the parks not far
It's nice, walking on an empty boulevard

Stepping here thinking 'bout how I could turn my world into a better place
'Cause all my life long I've been feeling so damn out of place
I came into this world with intensions of peace on my mind
It seems like day after day, I leave those intensions behind

Bridge
The sky is clear, the stars are bright
What's better than to be and fly?
I relax my mind and be at ease
And let this journey set me free

Chorus
And I'll spread my wings and fly away
To a place that I long for 'Cause I can't remain
This world's insane
Where's that place that I long for

Blamed a lot of people for a lot of shit
But now I understand I just couldn't handle it Being brave enough to face any situation
I strongly believe that's a part of god's creation

I've been so lonely, been chilly, been cheated and yes
I've been misunderstood
Been angry and down even been told I'm up to no good Makes me want to run that's how life Sometimes just ain't no fun
But I put my wings out and rise above it tonight

Bridge
Chorus

Where's the love y'all
Where's that place y'all been looking for
Lot of people claim they got it but they don't know I'm just trying to find my sinner 'cause I've been a sinner
From now on I'mma change new chapter new page

Take me there, I wanna go there
Take me there, let's got there
Take me there, I wanna be there
With you

Chorus (until end)
