Some are too easy, some are too slow.
Some people I'll never know.
In my dreams I have it all.
But it's gone when I wake up in the dawn.

There are facts you can show.
There are figures I don't know. Something big.
Something new.
Give me anything that you can prove.

I don't like dancing and I don't like to rock.
I have a TV and I watch it a lot.
Want to lose this feeling I've got.
Please help me.

I don't like working but they say I must.
They say if I don't I'll lose my job.
This is just a feeling I've got.
Please help me.

Some are too lazy. Some are too bold.
These people I don't want to know.
Something big, something new.
Give me information I can use.

There are phrases to be told.
There are figures I'll never know.
In my mind I have it all.
But it's gone as soon as someone calls.

I don't like dancing and I don't like to rock.
I have a TV and I watch it a lot.
Want to lose this feeling I've got.
Please help me.

I don't like working but they say I must.
They say if I don't I'll lose my job.
This is just a feeling I've got.
Please help me.
