"Play It For Today"

Tell me what you need
Now that I can breath
All the things unsaid
They are in my head
And I've been getting old

Play it for today
Caught by tomorrow
I'll be whatever I will be

Tell me what you need
Now that I can see
All the things I've read
They have left my head
And I'm still getting on

Play it for today
Caught by tomorrow
I'll be whatever I will be

As your falling through thin air
I'm still by the stairs
Go your way I'll go mine
It's all coming down

Play it for today
Caught by tomorrow
I'll be whatever I will be
