Baltimore
Bring back your baby to this long lonely shore
Make her a lady
Oh please let us see the queen of my dreams just once more

Daylight fades and yet another summer day just goes whispering away
Like the heat waves off the freeways
And these days I've been thinking would've been spent so much better by your side

We both know not to say what we feel anymore
Baby I would do anything to be by your side
Instead of all alone
Millions of miles from home

Are the harbor lights bright where you are
Do you dream southern shores
And of a lost lonely boy
And of your feet in the sand and your hand in my hand just once more

Some night soon I'll lasso the moon
Well James Stewart would too
So I'll do that for you Cause it's a wonderfully silent and sleepless night thinking of you

We both know not to say what we mean anymore
Baby I would do anything to be by your side
Instead of all alone
Millions of miles from home

And it's hard to be hopeful when you're hope is gone
And it's hard to be strong for so long

Are you blue back in Baltimore or have you moved on To a brighter and sunnier day, hey, yeah
To a brighter and sunnier day
And left me all alone

Millions of miles from home
