In ninth grade I got my first guitar
In tenth grade I got my first car and drove around
And played the music loud

That is when I bought Pearl Jam "Ten"
And my life never was the same again
I drove around
And played the music loud

And everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll
So get down
Get down
Everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll
So get down
Get down

On Friday nights we'd drive down to the lake
In this Buick LeSabre that didn't have brakes
We drove down
And played the music loud

Without fail, the police would come
And it was fend for yourself and boys run, run, run
We rode out
And played the music loud

And everybody knows that the devil started rock and
roll
So get down
Get down
Everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll
So get down
Get down

Now if you know anything about small towns
Then you know it's not hard to track a Buick down
We'd get caught
Cop said, turn that radio down.

Then he said

"Everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll"
So get down
Get down
Everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll
So get down
Get down
Everybody knows that the devil started rock and roll
So get down, down, down
