Let's get out of this place
Rude bar songs and light streaked smoke rings blown from women's lips
The jukebox sings and they keep pushing repeat

Quarters and quarters for quarter hours
Quarters and quarters for quarter hours

Red colored people stream through red colored rooms
The red no rose knows but noses know
And cabs are called
While outside, we still hear them all

Soon they will all call for the last call
Soon they will all call for the last call
With quarters and quarters for quarter hours
With quarters and quarters for quarter hours

Quarters and quarters for quarter hours
Quarters and quarters for quarter hours

Showcase the airwaves
Slow breeze through the staircase
The balcony by moonlight
The moonlight by midnight
The midnight by your side
Eat our dust, as we ride out, yeah
Eat our dust, as we ride out, yeah
