Save my soul. Can't you see I'm falling
Save my heart. All I ever want is
Save my soul. Can you really feel the fame
Don't wanna lose the game. Don't play a role
Save my soul. Can't you see I'm falling
Save my heart. All I ever want is
Save my soul. Can you really feel the fame
Don't wanna lose the game. Open your heart

A rhythm makes your room going round and round
You're looking for a new love that you never found
Finally you're lonely and you feel so rolled
Open your heart and I'll save your soul

Why don't you stay is that the game you play
You try to change the night into day
A room must going round and round
The rhythm bring your love that you not found
Addicted to a promise land
Don't wanna lose a real friend
Don't play a role, don't lose selfcontrol
Open your heart now save your soul

The times we're walking hand in hand
Remember what it means to lose a real true friend
Finally you're lonely and you feel so rolled
Open your heart and I'll save your soul

You compare is that love we shared
Or is this just a love affair
Addicted to a promise land...

Save my soul. (Is that just a game you play?)
All I ever want is (don't play a role)
Save my soul. (Is it love we share?)
Can you really feel the fame
