There's a loud noise I never heard before POW POW
soft whisper coming through the door What's that a commotion
there's static and bad Emotion your walking high and running slow you jump at sudden motion
this time of night the city lights yea they're bright They're glowing all around me
And they're gaining might Walking down the street with the dogs right at my feet
The cars are heading for me and the people are discrete
The woman in the brown shirt serves the mango apple niner
so does the girl beside her and the man that's right behind her they're standing there checking me out Oh my god I'm busted you better watch you back Jack, nobody can be trusted
but wait
how do you know they're watchin?
I think they got this feeling that I'm dealing in a mob ring
Slammin
and Crammin
ramming behind the door Cuz in this life he's never tired he lives a metaphor
Auto Zimmatic
you hate your own brain
Auto Zimmatic
paranoia strain
Auto Zimmatic
magic's in your hand
dramatic addict
Whose that talking?

Voices in your head?
What are they trying to tell me?
You're gonna wind up dead you better quit that dealing wheeling and concealing this paranoia feeling
is gonna send you reeling I'm in my taxi cab
heading for Skylab
when a dispatch
is coming across the channel what they're looking for is hidden in the panel if you break the law in the end you're gonna fall its just a vacation
taken in moderation
freeing your mind
Ä©mancipation proclamation
Auto Zimmatic
you hate your own brain
Auto Zimmatic
paranoia strain
Auto Zimmatic
magic's in your hand
dramatic addict
Auto Zimmatic
you hate your own brain
Auto Zimmatic
paranoia strain
Auto Zimmatic
magic's in your hand
dramatic addict
