Ohhhhhh

I would never change your face because your so damn beautiful everyone is so full of themselves these days and I would never change my life though it's so full of strife and I live by the knife right now is a time I have really no use for a wife

ohh but that's okay
I'll just stay here forever
one more day to remember

I would never change this place because I'm having so much fun everyone I know is dancing under the sun and I would never change my mind so don't waste my time do I have to remind you opinions were never designed for the blind

and one more thing
I have to say everything I do I do for you so just stay and surrender

there's no need to go to go and start a fight cause I don't have the might or the DNA
