Did you wanna talk?
Did you wanna tell me?
Simply cant remember anything that you said
Are we gonna fly?
Oh did I mention,
I would rather drive because altitude frightens me A leader of a new school turning up a smooth groove my soul-searching brother comes packed with action Jimmy's got jams Joney's got jelly
Jane marries Kate now she's kissing all over me

It's freezing in this room, its got wall-to-wall carpet the fish is on the lamp, and Buddha is underneath humans sit down, birds fly over dogs just smile every time they lift their legs there's something on the table open for discussion have to safe sex because blah blah blah is all he said Marshall's are good, Soldano's are better The Wami Digitech is collecting dust on the floor the sun is rising do da day do da day
there's something I'm supposed to do da day what was I supposed to do da day?

ladders don't talk but they make a lot of clatter walking underneath is bad luck is what you need but you must draw it take it from the top now let me introduce hello this is god, tell me can you hear me? if Jesus was a drummer he'd kick a beat everyday I go to work get up in the morning train is coming all aboard do da day

do da day
the sun is rising
there's something I'm supposed to do da day
what was I supposed to do da day?
what was I supposed to do da day?
