my friend Brian Madison and I say everyday

is a shot in the arm of faith I just want some
some affection
a connection to your world my friend Madison's a little bit taller than me look what you got us in never have I been so high ready to comply just around the bend a couple of guys can't comprehend how we get by this time while we drive its where we sit when we ride high into this galaxy cause I can't see right in front of my face broken glass that's all over the ground I tried my contacts my contacts not around

I just want some

I don't know anything I want to know
is there some way I can help you find some peace of mind
my friend of mine

hurry up and give me a knife so I can hurt myself you could burn me up and put my ashes on your shelf this is the only way that I would be with you forever sliding into bed with my new girl is better three little brownies come knock on your door they say do you want some cookies or how about some whores I want some more for me and my friend Madison now shut your mouth and look what you got us in

I don't know anything I want to know
my friend of mine
