Lost on a highway
black up and down
yellow lights are flashing white line is dashing the cars are passing me by the road is winding headlights are blinding I'm kissing this town goodbye

so goodbye

goodbye

see you later bitch
its time to go
time for me to get out
time for me to show
the monsters on the inside covered by a lie
covered by a mask

superficial model girl that I know ohh how you like to pose you could be mine for the right price but you're not the one I chose I have no problems with your pretty face nice to have for a while but if you want to earn my respect you'll have to learn to smile back on a new course same one
I want more mirrors reflecting

and my thoughts rejecting now I'm back where I was before take away the e L by the d
models are made from a mold so

goodbye, goodbye

on the other side
see you later
