Don't lift me up and let me down, I'm as high as I could be In a house with green curtains Its the only place for me don't give me praise for what I've done cause I have only just begun There'll be time for that to come In the future

but don't tell me son you'll never make it you'll just breakthrough underground I'll tell them that's just what they think and we'll breakthrough with our sound gotta keep it real for real

Don't throw me in and let me drown cuz I haven't learned to swim in a boat lined with deceit your the anchor by my feet fill up the hole you've dug for me I'll be rising to my feet up and down and all around fill up your plate and words those eat cuz I know the best way to play is everyday and everyway after I win I'll just grin and we'll cash in and we'll just say gotta keep it real for real

I don't know when its gonna end or how I'm gonna feel complete but maybe no is the only thing to say to get things through to you gotta keep it real every single day
