Rewind
or do an about face and trace your steps back to a time, when you were innocent and full of hope not dope
but now
i cant disguise
the smoke filled bleeding skies bleeding skies

hand down your latest complaint God forgot your name and dont be shy reveal the way your father tried to steal your soul sometimes i feel like crying thats why i close my eyes close my eyes

and i dont know how ive been living with this feeling im drowning in a sea of lies sometimes i dont have the nerve to say how i feel when your near

but now
i feel like crying
thats why i close my eyes
close my eyes

I've got this feeling that I'm coming off my shelf Paralyzing panic managing myself Is there a hole inside your room that I can rent So I can hide out from my fading lost innocent
