everything I do for you
is swept under the door you whore don't ignore flashing signs of disconnect train wreck disrespect
my father's moral views don't you misuse
your powers as a bitch

chorus
that's when everything went ground
a tremor in the town
you've never seen this side of me before although you dragged me down I never made a sound
until I found that letter in your drawer

and every photograph faked laugh I'll give precision faith neglect what the heck did I say heck I meant to say Fuck You I'm feeling kind of blue but watch me turn to red warhead I am fed up and I want to let you

[chorus]
although you dragged me down

that's when I found out that you were a whore knees on the floor
I checked your middle drawer and not it's time to settle the score
I've got to be a man and take a stand erase your nam-e your guilty fashion is a waste of time because I'm innocent

settle the score
I've got to be a man and take a stand erase your nam-e
your guilty fashion is a waste of time

that's what I said
that's what I said
that's what I said
I'm innocent
that's what I said
that's what I said
that's what I said
that's what I said
