Been since the kiss that I forgot to lay
On your head
Been since the pawn that I forgot to call
On my own
And I fiend for the sweet
That I no longer feel
On my lips
Now your seasons are
The same as mine
Now you're sleeping
Through my days and I
Know I ...over you, passing by

These are some words
That you forgot to hear
Walking out
I said love never leave
Without me like without your call
Now your seasons are
The same as mine
Now you're sleeping
Through my days and I
Know I ...over you, passing by

So sober, you can cover it
And I feel like I've left
All these notes in my head
That you'll find
Now the reasons, questions and please
And never mind
Now your seasons are
The same as mine
Now you're sleeping
Through my days and I
Know I ...over you, passing by.
