What would you say if I said this year has been
Only a dream that only we have been in?
No one else can sense all the harm I've done
And it has always been our hands in a melded one

If there's a difference then I don't know
Between miles and a stone's throw
All that matters is what can mend us

You can be silent as you want to
No one can punish me like I do
What would you say if I said I found the truth?
We'll turn it around I'll stay here and wait for you

If there's a difference then I don't know
Between miles and a stone's throw
