Well I
I can fly
I can fly so very high
Because all of you guys
All of you guys set my heart on fire
Burning love through out our empire

We're not afraid to show some affection
Everybody is together with no separation

This is our anthem

There are no words to describe this state of mind
Everybody's on the same page
Burning though all time and space
It's just right

Just keep on blowing your smoke rings
Just keep on blowing them while I wait

This is our anthem
