Oh this is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love
I thought I said

Searching for a pleasure but we only find pain
Not living in a hotel living in a brief
Chasing our chasing after lemon field
But now we all follow us down to our graves

If it ain't in here
It won't be there
I say oh yeah, oh yeah

This is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love
I thought I said (that's what I said)

Looking up, looking for a higher taste
We had it once before
But it seems to be misplaced
People come together 'cause it ain't no race

Always 21 every single day
If it ain't in here
It won't be there
I say oh yeah, oh yeah

Lord if it ain't in here
It won't be there
I say oh yeah, oh yeah

This is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love
I thought I said (that's what I say)

This is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love

I thought I said
(That's what I say)

Oh, ooh, ooh, oh...

Searching for pleasure
But we only find pain

This is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love
I thought I said
(That's what I say)

This is a different hunger
Heavier than thunder
Satisfied by love, love
I thought I said

Oh, my, my, be humbler than a blade of grass
Be patient and forgiving like a tree

Speak of this love, speak of this love,
The time has come to speak of this love,
Speak of this love, speak of this love
