Revor Rabin/Bob Ezrin/Alan Moore)
I was waiting for the moment
I was hoping for the moment
I can see a city burn on the horizon
Sudden darkness fills the sky
And hides the day
Through the fires have set me free
>From the clouds that cover me
I can't look away
I can't look away
I have scaled the valley side
And climbed the mountain
Yet my freedom's still
One thousand miles away
Yet I'm frozen in mid-stride
By this yearning deep inside
I can't look away
I can't look away
I was waiting for the moment
Then I heard the angel's scream
Cloaked in arms of war
I'll come to look for you
For, until they see me,
There is no other way
Through the flames that set me free
And the clouds that cover me
I won't look away
I won't look away
