Trevor Rabin/Gary Rabin/Alan Moore)
If you find yourself alone
Stay where you are, don't move, we'll find you
By the time I remember this
I've covered wingspans of miles
In dreadful circles
Nightfall gathering
There's a dark array of gloomy stars
Keep changing direction
And I don't know where you are
Like the flight of a dove
Take me back to the land that I love
CHORUS
Cover up! inside
The more you learn the more you hide
Cover up! inside
The more you learn the more you hide
Cover up!
The changes of pattern
Timing
Concrete distinctions
In the presence of danger
Nightfall, darkness...be alert!
Your heart be falling down
You head for the wall
You suck on stones
Like the flight of the dove
Take me back to the land that I love
