"When I Look at You"

Everybody knows, everybody knows
You're the kind of guy, kind of guy
That a girl like me goes for

Everywhere you go, everywhere you go
People want to know why you're alone
Hanging out on the dance floor

Ripped up jeans, tattooed sleeves, so James Dean
But you got it cause you're so hot, I could die

Cause when I look at you
I wanna get a room
I wanna get a room

Under all that cool
I know you want it too
I know you want it too

What's a girl gotta do to get you out of her mind
And into the groove?
Cause when I looked at you I knew

I've been waiting all night
Waiting all night
For the right time, right sign
Just so I can finally make a move

Cheesy lines from the wrong guys
Drinking cheap wine
Wasting time till the moment I could get to you
I walk over now, we're getting closer
I'm trembling, I see heaven in your eyes

Cause when I look at you
I wanna get a room
I wanna get a room

Under all that cool
I know you want it too
I know you want it too

What's a girl gotta do to get you out of her mind
And into the groove?
Cause when I looked at you I knew

I knew, I knew, I knew

Cause when I look at you
I wanna get a room
I wanna get a room

Under all that cool
I know you want it too
I know you want it too

What's a girl gotta do to get you out of her mind
And into the groove?
Cause when I looked at you I knew
Cause when I looked at you I knew
Cause when I looked at you I knew
