Now you left the solid wall behind
To lead the balance of below
Now you left the solid wall behind
To lead the balance of below

Love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines

Unseen, a time to break your mind
To see the shadow of the signs
And watch the water fall alone
To see the center of the road

Unlined, un-wavered and un-free
Undone to love, the same as me
Unturned, un-taken and all alone
Unseen, another chance

To understand the movements
In the corners of your mind
To see the balance of behind
And walk the centerline alone

Love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines

Love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines

And understand the movements
In the corners of your mind
To see the balance of behind
And walk the centerline alone

Love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines

Love that breaks all lines

To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines

Love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
To see the love that breaks all lines
