

Less, The "Attention"

Clear my head up
I will do anything
Been here before and I need something more
I don't wanna take a back seat
Drive me closer
Will you answer me?
Been so defined by this life that I find that it makes me want to scream

Making my lungs sore to get more of your attention
And this is my desperation

Clear this life up
I'm losing energy
Taking the fall isn't easy at all
I accepted mediocracy
My heart's heavy
Stretch out my hands to you
Don't turn away cuz I need you today like a desert needs the rain

Making my lungs sore to get more of your attention
And this is my desperation
This is my desperation
Been feeling so low
I need you to break the tension and be my motivation
This is my attention

Well it can be so hard to find you
I think it starts inside of me
And it can be so hard to find you
I think it starts inside of me

Making my lungs sore to get more of your attention
And this is my desperation
This is my desperation

Making my lungs sore to get more of your attention
And this is my desperation
This is my desperation
Been feeling so low

I need you to break the tension and be my motivation
This is my
Gain your attention
