

Less, The "Loud Machines"

Visit "Loud Machines" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm surrounded by the sound of loud machines
And everyone's got their problems and no one knows how to solve them
And my chances here are few and far between Living up to nothing I always dreamed of something

Take my weakness
Feel my heart beat
Wake my soul and fill this face up
I've been waiting and I hear you callin'

So clear this up for me
Make me feel make me real
Without you I can't see
Will you be my eyes?
And will you carry me?
Oh I need you here
You speak to me cuz I just need some clarity

I'm surrounded by the sound of loud machines
They're coming on up beside me with no place safe to hide me
But you have been so beautiful to me
It's you that keeps me going
And makes it better knowing

Take my weakness
Feel my heart beat
I've been waiting and I hear you callin'

So clear this up for me
Make me feel make me real
Without you I can't see
Will you be my eyes?
And will you carry me?
Oh I need you here
You speak to me cuz I just need some clarity

I'm out of my head when you say its fine
I'm out of this world I left it behind
I don't have to run I don't have to cry

I'm hangin on your every word
I hear you callin'

So clear this up for me
Make me feel make me real
Without you I can't see
Will you be my eyes?
And will you carry me
Oh I need you here
You speak to me cuz I just need some clarity

I'm surrounded by the sound of loud machines
