

Less, The

"Say"

Say "Hello" tell a joke and make a happy face
Say "Goodbye" fake a smile and turn and walk away
You see my heart is breaking
New life is in the making

Who's gonna say it
Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."
We're gonna make it
Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."

Where'd you go all I need is a little company
Turn the tide take my life and make me learn to breathe
I need you to breathe
I see my heart is waking
New life is in the making

Who's gonna say it
Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."
We're gonna make it
Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."

But I'm alive I'm doing fine when you're here with me
Stay with me it's plain to see you make my heart beat

Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."
We're gonna make it
Please say "Everything's fine."
And I think you captured my mind when you said
"We're gonna make it through."

I know we're gonna make it through
I know we're gonna make it through
I know we're gonna make it through now
